For several years the San Antonio Police Department has provided a meal to needy families, this year is no different. The SAPD West Substation will hold its 14th Annual Thanksgiving Dinner to over 100 families. The dinner is made possible through donations from several organizations including the San Antonio Police Officers' Association.

Food baskets will also be given to these 100 families to continue the holiday season.

There will also be a tree dedication taking place in honor of Officer John Wheeler.
